HOUSING CHOICE VOUCHER PROGRAM

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) determines the rules and regulations for the Housing Choice Voucher Program. If you are a rental property landlord or manager, this handbook will assist you in understanding how the program works.

The success of the program depends on the Contra Costa County Housing Authority partnering with the families and landlords who have decent, safe, and sanitary rental units. The Housing Authority not only provides rental assistance, but training on the upkeep of the property. Many families in your community rely on landlords like you who are willing to participate in the program.

The Housing Authority's goal is to provide excellent service to the families and landlords participating in the Housing Choice Voucher Program. The Housing Authority will make every effort to inform you of the program rules and to advise you of how these rules affect you.

Do not hesitate to contact the Housing Authority at 925-957-7000 if you have any questions.

Landlord's Responsibilities:

In order for the program to work, the landlord has the responsibility to:

- Screen families who apply to determine if they will be suitable renters. The Housing Authority can supply you with the current and previous address, and landlord information.
- Consider a family's background regarding factors such as:
 - Paying rent and utility bills
 - Care of the rental property
 - Respecting the rights of others to peaceful enjoyment of their residences
 - Engaging in drug-related or other criminal activity
 - Compliance with other essential conditions of tenancy
- Comply with the terms of the Housing Assistance Payments (HAP) Contract with the Housing Authority.
- Collect the rent due by the tenant and otherwise enforce the lease.
- Comply with all federal and local laws that prohibit discrimination in housing because a person has children or because of the person's sex, age, ethnicity, race, color, family status, source of income, or disability.

Violations of fair housing and nondiscrimination laws will result in denial or termination of participation in the Housing Choice Voucher Program and could result in civil penalties.

It is in your best interest as a landlord to utilize the same methods of screening and selection for all renters and to keep complete documentation. At your request, the Housing Authority will furnish you with additional information pertaining to fair housing requirements.

- Comply with fair housing laws and discriminate against no one.
- Review the lease agreement with the family carefully.
- Maintain the housing unit by making necessary repairs in a timely manner.
- Reasonable Modifications for Disabilities

A landlord cannot discriminate against a disabled family and should be aware of landlord obligations to make reasonable modifications to a rental unit for a disabled family at the family's expense. Such modifications are required in the private rental market by the Fair Housing Act. Notify the Housing Authority if you have, or know of a landlord who has, units accessible to persons with disabilities.

- Maintenance of the Unit

The landlord is responsible and must ensure maintenance and upkeep of the unit unless the lease specifies otherwise. Repairs for which the landlord is responsible should be made in a timely manner.

- Vacant Unit

The landlord must notify the Housing Authority immediately if a family moves in violation of their lease

- Additional Payments

The Housing Authority determines the amount a family pays for rent. The Housing Authority must approve any additional payments for rent, utilities or other charges. A landlord requesting and or collecting any additional payments for rent, utilities or other charges may be subject to criminal and or civil prosecution. Landlords should refer to the Housing Assistance Payment Contract.

Housing Authority's Responsibilities:

In order for the program to work, the Housing Authority must do the following:

- Review all applications to determine whether an applicant is eligible for the program.
- Explain all the rules of the program to families who qualify.
- Issue a Voucher.
- Approve the unit, the landlord, and the tenancy.
- Make Housing Assistance Payments to the landlord in a timely manner.
- Ensure that both the family and the unit continue to qualify under the program.
- Ensure that landlords and families comply with the program rules.
- Provide families and landlords with prompt, professional service.

Family's Responsibilities:

In order for the program to work, the family must do the following:

- Provide the Housing Authority with complete and accurate information.
- Cooperate in attending all appointments scheduled by the Housing Authority.
- Make their best effort to find a place to live that is suitable for them and qualifies for the program.
- Take responsibility for the care of their housing unit.
- Pay their portion of rent on time and otherwise in accordance with the terms of the lease.
- Comply with the terms of their lease with the landlord.
- Comply with the family obligations of the Housing Choice Voucher Program.
- Utilities
If the family is required to provide any utilities, (such as electricity, gas, or water) they must keep them in service. If the family fails to do so, the unit will not meet Housing Quality Standards. In that case, the family will be given a notice to get the utilities back into service immediately or risk termination of assistance and will not be eligible for a transfer voucher.
- Damages
The family is responsible for repairing any damages to the unit or premises beyond normal-wear and tear, even if a guest causes them. If the family does not fulfill its obligations for the repair of damages, as stated in the lease, their assistance may be terminated.

Families who participate in the Housing Choice Voucher Program are required by HUD to comply with certain family obligations. These obligations are listed below.

- Required Information
The family must supply any information that the Housing Authority or HUD determines is necessary for the administration of the program or for certifying or re-certifying a family. This includes evidence of citizenship or eligible immigration status. It also includes information about family income and household composition (the people living in the family's unit).

- Social Security Numbers
The family must provide social security cards on all members of the household and must sign and submit consent forms allowing the Housing Authority to obtain information.
- Truthfulness
Any information provided by the family must be true and complete.
- HQS Violations
The family is responsible for correcting any HQS violations caused by any of their household members or any of their guests.
- Unit Inspections
The family must allow the Housing Authority to inspect the unit at reasonable times and after reasonable notice.
- Lease Violations
The family may not commit any serious or repeated violation of the lease.
- Moving
The family must notify the landlord and the Housing Authority in writing before moving out of the unit or terminating its lease.
- Eviction
The family must promptly give the Housing Authority a copy of any eviction notice it receives from the landlord.
- Housing Use
The family must use the assisted unit primarily as a residence, and the unit must be the family's only residence.
- Family Composition
The Housing Authority must approve all members of the family. The family must promptly inform the Housing Authority of the birth, adoption, or court-awarded custody of a child and it must request Housing Authority approval to add any other family member as an occupant of the unit.
- Other Household Occupants
A foster child or live-in aide may reside in the unit if the family obtains the approval of the Housing Authority.
- Reduction in Family Size
The family must promptly notify the Housing Authority if a family member no longer resides in the unit.

- Profit-Making Activities
Family members may engage in legal profit- making activities in the unit, but only if such activities are incidental to the primary use of the unit as the family's residence. The lease may contain additional restrictions.
- Subleasing
The family may not sublease or sublet the unit.
- Assigning or Transferring
- The family may not assign the lease or transfer the unit to anyone else.
- Absences
The family must supply any information or certification requested by the Housing Authority for the purpose of verifying that the family is actually living in the unit. The family must also promptly notify the Housing Authority in writing when it intends to be away from the unit for any extended period.
- Ownership or Interest
The family may not own or have any interest in the unit (other than in a cooperative, or owner of a manufactured home leasing a manufactured home space).
- Corruption
The members of the family may not commit fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or Criminal act in connection with the program.
- Crime
The members of the family may not engage in drug-related or violent criminal activity.
- Other Housing Assistance
The members of the family may not receive Housing Choice Voucher Program assistance while receiving another housing subsidy for the same unit or a different unit under any other federal, state, or local housing assistance program.
- Alcohol or Substance Abuse
The members of the family may not engage in the illegal use of a controlled substance and may not abuse alcohol in a way that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises by other residents.

Family Approved for the Housing Choice Voucher Program

To be eligible for the Housing Choice Voucher Program, a family must:

- Be income eligible
- Have no drug related/criminal activity within the last year.

When a family is determined to be eligible for the program and funding is available, the Housing Authority issues a Housing Choice Voucher. The family receives the Voucher at the tenant briefing. The family begins looking for a unit.

Tenant Approved by Landlord

The landlord must approve the family as a suitable renter, even though a family is determined by the Housing Authority to be eligible for the program.

The Housing Authority does not screen families for the suitability as renters. That is the landlord's responsibility.

Landlords must apply the same standards of tenant selection to any family that applies, whether the family is a prospective Housing Choice Voucher Program renter or not. Tenant selection must not be based upon race, color, age, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or any other discriminatory factors.

To begin the process, ask to see his/her Voucher.

- Review the Voucher

Check the expiration date to determine whether the Voucher is still valid. Vouchers expire 60 days after issuance unless the Housing Authority has extended them. Check the unit bedroom size for which the family has been approved. It will be stated on the Voucher.

- Screen the Family

Evaluate a prospective renter who contacts you as you would any other renter. Make sure that your tenant selection standards are based on objective, business related considerations, such as previous history of nonpayment, damage to property, or disturbance of neighbors.

The Housing Authority knows that the landlord has approved the family when the Request for Tenancy Approval form is completed by the landlord and submitted to the Housing Authority.

Leasing Process

HUD requires that any lease signed by a Housing Choice Voucher Program tenant must include the HUD Tenancy Addendum (see attached copy), and the Housing Authority must approve the tenancy before the lease is signed.

You must submit a copy of your lease to the Housing Authority along with a Request for Tenancy Approval form. The Housing Authority may review the lease to make sure it does not contain any provision that conflicts with program rules or state law. The lease must comply with state and local law.

The lease must specify all of the following:

- Name of the landlord
- Name of the tenant
- Unit address
- Term of the lease
- Amount of the monthly rent to landlord
- Utilities and appliances to be supplied by the landlord
- Utilities and appliances to be supplied by the tenant
- Amount of the security deposit.
- Renewal terms

Tenancy and Unit Approved by the Housing Authority

Once the Housing Authority receives the Request for Tenancy Approval from the landlord, the Housing Authority will review and determine if the tenant qualifies for the unit. The Housing Authority will then schedule a Housing Quality Standards (HQS) inspection with the landlord.

The landlord or representative should be present during the HQS inspection. If the family chooses a unit with a gross rent greater than the payment standard and their share exceeds 40% of their monthly-adjusted income, the Housing Authority is not permitted to approve tenancy.

When the unit passes the inspection and the rent is reasonable, the Housing Authority will prepare the necessary paperwork, and tenant assistance will begin. If the tenant assistance begins in the middle of the month, the Housing Authority will prorate the first month's HAP and that amount will be included in the following months Housing Assistance Payment.

Rent Reasonableness

At the time of the inspection, the inspector will also be evaluating the rent reasonableness of the housing unit. The proposed rent will be compared to the rent for other units on the market of similar size, features, amenities, and location.

In the Voucher Program rents must be reasonable and comparable to those charged for similar unassisted units. The Housing Authority bases the determination of reasonableness and comparability on the unit inspection report and rental market information.

Inspection Process

After a family finds a suitable housing unit and the landlord approves the family, the Housing Authority needs to determine if the unit qualifies for the Housing Choice Voucher Program. This includes a Housing Quality Standards (HQS) inspection. If the unit does not pass inspection, a reasonable time will be given to make the required repairs.

The Housing Authority will schedule a HQS inspection with the landlord. The landlord or a representative should be present for this inspection.

PARTICIPATE IN THE INSPECTION

Take advantage of this opportunity to meet the inspector and to discuss the various aspects of the inspection. It will help you to learn more about HQS so that you will know how best to prepare for other inspections. Once you go through an inspection, you will have a better idea of what the inspector is looking for.

PREPARE THE UNIT FOR INSPECTION

Review the information below on HQS as you evaluate your rental unit. Try to correct any HQS violations before the inspection. At the time of the inspection, the unit should be “move- in” ready. This will prevent delays in the beginning of the family’s rental assistance. If the family is already in the unit, it is a good idea to go over the checklist with them to ensure that the unit will meet the minimum requirements.

HQS Checklist

The following is a listing of the conditions that must be verified by the housing inspector:

Living Room

- Is there a living room?
- Are there at least two electrical outlets; or one electrical outlet and one working light fixture?

- Do all elevators have a current inspection certificate? Are all elevators working and safe?
- Are the site and immediate neighborhood free of conditions that would seriously and continuously endanger the health or safety of the residents?
- Is the interior free of mold and mildew?

Other Requirements

- Are tenant-supplied utilities separately metered?

Most Common Fail Conditions

- Nonfunctional or missing smoke detectors
- Missing or cracked electrical outlet cover plates
- No railings where required
- Peeling exterior and interior paint
- Tripping hazards caused by permanently installed floor coverings (carpets/vinyl)
- Cracked or broken windowpanes
- Inoperable stove burners or range hoods
- Missing burner control knobs
- Inoperable bathroom fans or no ventilation in bathroom
- Leaking faucets or plumbing
- No temperature/pressure-relief valve on water heater

Make Repairs Promptly

If the housing unit does not pass the initial inspection, you will be notified in writing of any items that failed and given a reasonable time to make repairs. When the repairs are complete, the Housing Authority will re-inspect the unit. The Housing Authority is not responsible for any payments until the unit passes inspection and the family has taken occupancy. If the family moves in before the unit has passed, the family is responsible for the full amount of the monthly rent.

- All inconclusive and fail items must be corrected and approved prior to the execution of the Housing Assistance Payments Contract.

Contract and Lease Signed

If the unit meets the program requirements and the tenancy can be approved, the Housing Authority will enter into a Housing Assistance Payments (HAP) Contract with the landlord, and the family will enter into a lease with the landlord. Once the unit is approved, you will enter into a contract with the Housing Authority, and sign a lease agreement with the family.

Security Deposits

The landlord may collect a security deposit from the tenant. The security deposit may not be in excess of private market practice, or in excess of amounts charged for unassisted tenants.

Payments to Landlord

After the HAP Contract and lease are signed, the Housing Authority makes the initial HAP and continues to make monthly payments to the landlord as long as the family continues to meet eligibility criteria and the housing unit qualifies under the program. The Housing Authority will mail the payments on or about the first of each month and will continue to make payments as long as the following conditions are met:

- The unit meets Housing Quality Standards.
- The tenant is eligible for assistance.
- The tenant resides in the unit.
- The landlord is in compliance with the contract.

The family is responsible for paying the difference between the Housing Authority's payment amount and the total rent to landlord for the unit. It is the landlord's responsibility to collect any portion of the rent payable by the family.

HUD-Required Annual Activities

There are two HUD-required annual activities:

- Re-certification of family income and household composition
- Inspection of housing units

Re-certification of Family

The Housing Authority is required to re-certify families at least annually. Each family is required to furnish information to the Housing Authority about total family income, allowable deductions from income, and family composition. If a family's income has increased or decreased, the amount of the family's payment and Housing Authority payment to the landlord may change, but the total amount received by the landlord from both the Housing Authority and the family will not be affected.

Changes in Family Composition or Income

When the family has an increase or decrease in family composition or income the Housing Authority will complete an interim worksheet to determine the impact upon the family and Housing Authority portion towards the lease rent.

The Housing Authority will provide written notice to the family and landlord of the change in the family's portion of rent.

Annual Inspection of Units

The Housing Authority must inspect every unit at least once a year. The Housing Authority will provide advance written notice to the family of the date of the annual inspection.

- If the unit does not pass the inspection, a reasonable time will be given to make repairs.
- The family is responsible for the repair of any damage beyond normal wear and tear.

Abatement of Payments

According to the HAP Contract, the landlord is responsible for ensuring that the unit meets Housing Quality Standards during the entire term of the HAP Contract. At any time it is determined that the unit does not meet Housing Quality Standards, the Housing Authority will notify the landlord in writing and provide reasonable time for repairs. If the repairs are not made within that time, the Housing Authority is required to abate payments. Although the family will still be responsible for its share of the rent if the Housing Authority abates payments, the landlord should monitor the condition of the unit and make repairs promptly.

Rent Increases

After the initial term of the lease, the landlord may increase the rent with a 60-day written notice to the family and the Housing Authority. The proposed increase must be reasonable. Any increase cannot make the rent greater than that charged for comparable unassisted unit.

Other Changes

If the tenant and landlord agree to any changes in the lease, the changes must be in writing, and the landlord must immediately give the Housing Authority a copy of the changes. The following will require the landlord and tenant to request Housing Authority approval of a new HAP Contract.

- Any changes in lease requirements governing tenant or landlord responsibilities for utilities or appliances
- Any changes in the term of the lease
- Any moves from one unit to another (including moves to a different unit within the same building or complex)
- If the Housing Authority approves the new HAP Contract, a new lease will also be required.

Contract Terminations

The HAP Contract is an agreement between the landlord and the Housing Authority. It runs concurrently with the lease and terminates automatically when the lease terminates.

Termination of Tenancy by Landlord

During the term of the lease, the landlord may terminate tenancy only for:

Serious or repeated violations of the terms and conditions of the lease, including, but not limited to, failure to pay rent or other amounts due under the lease.

Violations of federal, state, or local law that impose obligations on the tenant in connection with the use or occupancy of the unit or premises.

Other good causes, such as the following:

- Failure by the family to accept the offer of a new or revised lease.
- Family history of disturbance of neighbors, destruction of property, or living and housekeeping habits resulting in damage to the unit or premises.
- The landlord's desire to use the unit for personal or family use or for nonresidential purposes.
- Business or economic reasons, such as the sale of the property, renovation of the unit, or a desire to lease the unit at a higher rent.

The landlord may not terminate for "good cause" during the initial term of the lease unless the cause is something that the family did or failed to do. At the end of the initial term or at the end of any successive definite term, the landlord may terminate the lease without cause.

The landlord may evict a tenant only through a court action. The landlord must give the tenant written notice of the grounds for termination of tenancy at or before the commencement of the eviction action. The written notice of the grounds for termination of tenancy may be attached or combined with any eviction notice the landlord gives to the family. The landlord must also give a copy of the grounds for termination and eviction notice to the Housing Authority.

Termination of Tenancy by Family

The family may terminate tenancy in accordance with the lease and Tenancy Addendum. The family must give the landlord and the Housing Authority written notice of termination of tenancy before moving from the unit.

If the family is moving to another unit with Voucher assistance, the current landlord will be asked to complete a "Tenant In Good Standing" form provided by the Housing Authority. If the tenant is not in good standing with the current landlord, the family may not be issued a Voucher to use elsewhere and their assistance will terminate.

Termination of Housing Assistance by Housing Authority\

If the Housing Authority terminates program assistance to a family, the HAP Contract for the family terminates automatically. The Housing Authority will provide the landlord with written notice of termination of assistance. Rental assistance can be terminated if a family fails to fulfill its obligations under the program or if the family seriously or repeatedly violates the lease.

A HAP Contract may also end when a family's income increases to the point that a Housing Authority payment to the landlord is no longer necessary.

Breach of Contract

Any of the following actions by the landlord will be considered a breach of the HAP Contract:

- Violating the terms of any HAP Contract
- Failing to fulfill any landlord obligations under the HAP Contract, including HQS
- Committing fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act involving a federal housing program
- Failing to comply with or committing fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with a mortgage insured or a loan made by HUD
- Engaging in any drug-related criminal activity
- Engaging in any violent criminal activity

Criminal Activity

The Landlord or Housing Authority may terminate a tenant for any illegal activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment by other residents or persons residing in the immediate vicinity of the premises. It also includes any drug-related or violent criminal activity.

Change of Ownership

As a provision of the HAP Contract, the landlord may not assign the contract to a new landlord without the prior written consent of the Housing Authority. Therefore you must notify the Housing Authority if you put the property on the market for sale and once the unit is sold.

Disapproval of Landlord

The Housing Authority may disapprove a landlord if:

- The Housing Authority has been notified by HUD that the landlord has been debarred, suspended or subject to a limited denial of participation.
- The government has instituted an administrative or judicial action against the landlord for violation of the Fair Housing Act or other equal opportunity requirements.
- The landlord is the parent, child, grandparent, grandchild, sister, or brother of any member of the family, unless approving the unit would provide reasonable accommodation for a family member with disabilities.
- The landlord has violated obligations under a Housing Choice Voucher Program Housing Assistance Payments Contract.
- The landlord has committed fraud, bribery, or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any HUD program.

Benefits

Many landlords and property managers have come to appreciate the advantages of receiving guaranteed monthly assistance payments, as well as minimum inspection standards. Keeping your property consistently well maintained helps ensure both its resale value and its appeal to prospective tenants when a family moves out.

The Housing Choice Voucher Program compliments many key property management principles regarding tenant selection and lease enforcement, and it has helped others develop better maintenance skills.

The program provides families with the opportunity to choose rental units in neighborhoods that meet their needs. Having this flexibility has enabled many families to pursue employment and educational opportunities, reunite with their friends and extended families, live in a better climate, or move out of unsafe neighborhoods. Landlord participation is essential to making these opportunities a reality.

A Final Note

Information and cooperation are two key ingredients to developing a rewarding relationship with the Housing Authority and a family that is leasing your rental unit. With your cooperation, many families are able to find decent, safe and sanitary units to call home.

How to List Your Unit(s) for Rent

You may call the Housing Authority at 925-957-7068 to list your available unit(s). The Housing Authority will give your name and general information about your rental unit(s) to families who have been issued a Voucher.
